TAFTVILLE

Meeting of Book Club—Notes and Personals of Local Interest.

The regular meeting of the Taft-ville Book club was held Wednesday evening at the club rooms on Norwich avenue, with a good attendance.
The president, Ernest Pollard, presided, and routine business was transacted. Plans for a social were discussed and the matter was placed in the hands of the entertainment committee. On the conclusion of the business session, refreshments were served and a pleasant social hour was enjoyed.

Decrease in Number of Irish Families.

Of late years St. Patrick's day has been but quietly observed in the village. Twenty years ago Taftville was numbered among its population about one hundred Irish families and the feast of Ireland's patron saint was then always celebrated in an enthusiastic manner, but the sons of Erin have decreased in number here and at present only about thirty or forty families, with a corresponding decrease in the interest shown in St.
Patrick's day.

A New Industry.

The latest addition to Taftville's industrial life is a small, but enterprising, fur-bearing animal. Two young men interested in the fur business have procured two skunks, which have become so domesticated that they will come out of their holes when called and eat like young dogs or kittens.

OPEN HOUSE CLUB

Votes to Hire Fourth Floor of Cooke Building in Broadway—Plan to Move as Soon as Possible.

By the vote of 23 to 20 at an adjourned business meeting on Thursday evening, the Open House club decided to move from its present location opposite the postoffice to rooms on the fourth floor of the Cooke building on Broadway. The vote was then made unanimous, and the house committee was directed to proceed with the moving at as early a date as possible.

This action followed the report of the special committee appointed at the meeting a week ago to consider the present situation of the club and what was most desirable to do under the circumstances. After the meeting had been called to order by the president, Rev. Nelson Fox Carey, the report of the special committee was presented by John Donovan. It reviewed a half-dozen locations that had been considered, and the club's financial condition was discussed. The recommended location of the club. The result of the vote was as follows:

THIRD COMPANY PLANS

Celebration to Be Held April 6th, to Mark the Tenth Anniversary of the Invasion of the Island by the British.

The weekly drill of the Third company, A. C., was held at the armory on Thursday evening, when regular work was carried out and two enlistments were received. It was decided by the company to celebrate the tenth anniversary of the organization on April 6, and that evening there will be an entertainment which will be a credit to the company, and it is planned to invite all the ex-members of the company to be present and enjoy the festivities.

Wednesday evening Colonel Rafferty of the New London military district was at the armory for inspection and the examination of the officers as to their course of study during the winter. Major Ellis having been here each week for that purpose. Inasmuch as the officers of the district have been materially decreased, the weekly school of instruction for the officers will be discontinued. The further information has been received here as to what action the war department will take concerning the local officers going to Texas.

NORWICH TOWN

Latrop Memorial Society Meets—Lara Temperance on Thursday Morning —Growth League Sings on Wednesday at Yantic.

The March meeting of the Latrop Memorial Society, a sister society of the First Congregational church, which was held Wednesday afternoon, called together a good number. Miss Susan C. Hyde presided at the meeting.
The subject considered was Missionaries at Work, being the third chapter in Western Women in Eastern Lands.
A review of the previous chapter, Ladies East, was given by Miss S. C.
Roath. The speaker described different forms of missionary work as though they were entering upon it themselves. The great need of the missionary teacher, of the missionary in the arena work, of the medical missionary, of trained nurses and of industrial teaching was clearly brought out.

Dr. Arthur H. Smith of China says:
"The presence of an educated Christian woman in the sick room, who wins and wins strong and true of God's best gifts." The fact was stated that two of the annual meetings of the American Board of Christian Missions have been held in Norwich—the first one held in the autumn of 1904, was attended by Miss S. C.
Roath, principal of Mount Holyoke Seminary.

At the close of the meeting Mrs. F.
L. Allen, president of the Home Missionary society, asked that a committee be appointed to choose officers for the coming year. Mrs. George Hyde, Mrs. A. R. Keables and Mrs. Albin Hale were nominated.

Shadow Social.

Another in the series of successful entertainments was given Thursday evening when the Epworth League of the Methodist Episcopal church met at the church and there went in a body to Yantic to the home of two of their number, Mr. and Mrs. George Manning.
For a shadow social. Among the showing pictures were Lowell's Courtship, The Housewife's Soliloquy, A Home Scene, etc. Interposed were popular songs with cornet accompaniment by Frederick Manning. Mrs. William Manning, who has a well merited reputation as a reader, gave several selections, to the delight of those present. A cornucopia of cake and fruit were served by the social committee. The pictures were arranged by Mrs. George Manning.

Practical Training.

The teachers given Wednesday on trade schools in Y. M. C. A. hall recalled the fact that a teacher from the Town Street school, who taught in Porto Rico for years, spent the first summer vacation in New York city learning iron work and other forms of industrial work, and these were taught in the government schools in Porto Rico.

So Cold That Eggs Freeze.

morning on Waquoit road; it regis-tween Plain Hill and Baltic for delivery early in the morning froze on route.
